Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space unless the excess is paid for at transient rates, and under no circumstances will they be allowed to advertise other than their legitimate business in the space contracted for.

All transient advertisements must be paid for in advance.
Marriage and death notices must be paid for in advance.

Resolutions in memoriam, of thanks, tributes of respect, resolutions adopted by societies or persons, unless of public concern, will only be printed in this paper as advertisements.

The Gazette office is connected with the Telephone Exchange. Advertisements, orders for the paper, news, or any information or business can be sent by telephone.
(Entered at the Postoffice, Alexandria, Virginia, as second-class matter.)

THE BEST NEWSPAPER.—GEO. P. ROWELL & CO., proprietors of the American News-Paper Advertising Bureau, No. 10 Spruce street, New York, have issued a pamphlet containing a choice selection of newspapers for an advertiser to use, who prefers to cor-fine his advertising investments to such as are likely to pay him best. This selection names the best paper in every town or city having as much as five thousand population, provided a paper is printed which issues as many as a thousand copies a week. It has been demonstrated that full one-half of all the output of American newspapers emanate from less than seven hundred offices, and that a list of more than ten thousand newspapers can be made up, among which no single one prints regularly so many as a thousand copies.

To have dealings with this myriad of small papers cannot be thought of by the majority of advertisers, and advertising agencies find transactions with them to be the reverse of profitable. Out of seventeen thousand papers named in the American Newspaper Directory, only about two thousand are selected; of these only twenty-one are issued in Virginia and among these it is, not necessary to add, the GAZETTE is given the prominence to which its merits entitle it.

ROMANTIC RUNAWAY.—There was a romantic runaway match in Union county, N. C., recently. Charles Streeter wanted to wed a daughter of a farmer named Albert Robinson, but the old man opposed the match, and declared Streeter should never marry his daughter. One day last week the young man secured a horse and buggy, and with his intended bride by his side set out in great speed towards South Carolina, where no marriage license is required, to wed.
They had not been gone long before old man Robinson was apprised of the fact, and in a buggy drawn by a swift horse he started to overtake them. The race was a heated one, and the old man came upon his eloping daughter just after she had crossed over in South Carolina and demanded that Streeter surrender her, but the plucky young man did not propose to do any such thing, and showing fight in his eyes told the old man he could not get his daughter and that he proposed to marry her or die. Robinson seeing his determination told the young man to go ahead and he would not oppose the match further. A magistrate was called upon who performed the ceremony, and all three returned home together.

A MYSTERIOUS LOG.—A very remarkable phenomenon is attracting considerable attention in Upper Park township, in Burke county, N. C. Some twenty yards from Irish creek, half imbedded in the sand is a popular log three feet in diameter and about twenty feet in length, which, in its present condition, will weigh nearly three tons. The log lies at right angles to the creek, the butt being farthest from the creek, and elevated about three feet above the opposite end. The strange thing about it is that this log, without any apparent cause, is gradually moving, and first up hill.
Careful measurements have been made and stakes driven, and without any human interference the big log has edged its way up the incline three feet within the past twelve months. Last week, by some mysterious agency, the log was turned over in its sandy bed and moved several inches further up the hill. The log is too far from the creek to be influenced by freshets and it has not been interfered with by anyone.
It is located in a narrow valley between high hills. Many people go to look at the log, but no one has as yet solved the mystery.

THE ANGELS.—This celebrated oil pointing by the French artist Millet, and which was recently purchased by the American Art Association at auction in Paris, for $110,000, is 21 1/2 by 25 1/2 inches in size. The picture represents a young man and a maiden pausing from their work to listen to the tolling of the "Angels," themselves joining in evening prayer. The sun has already sunk below the horizon. The sky is still luminous with the warm golden light which gives a peculiar glowing light to the surrounding fields. The young couple have been busy harvesting the potato crop. They stand quietly in the foreground, their figures clearly cut against the vivid background. Their attitudes express the devout religious sentiments of rustic piety. Both send in silence a feeling prayer to their Maker, while the bells are ringing the "Angels" [the evening prayer] in the belfry of the quaint little village church, which is seen far away on the horizon, clearly defined against the golden sky.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething it is invaluable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it saves the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle.

A Doctor

Bill saved by always keeping Simmons Liver Regulator in the house.

If you have eaten anything hard of digestion, or feel heavy after meals, or sleepless at night; if you lead a sedentary life or are weakened by the strain of your duties; if you need cathartic to relax the bowels; if you require action on the Liver to relieve indigestion; if you require something to purify the blood and regulate the system; if you are traveling in unhealthy localities, or food or water does not agree with you, a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator will remove all trouble.

Ex-Governor of Ga. and U. S. Senator Joseph E. Brown says:
"You are at liberty to use my name in praise of Simmons Liver Regulator, and recommend it to everyone as the best preventive of Fever and Ague. It super-cides Quinine if taken in time."

The Salem Improvement Co.
REPORT OF ITS FINANCIAL CONDITION MADE TO A MEETING OF THE STOCK-HOLDERS HELD IN SALEM, VA., JANUARY 22, 1890.

To the Stockholders of the Salem Improvement Company: I beg leave to submit the following report of the financial condition of the company to January 20, 1890.

ASSETS.
Cash on hand.....$59,711 Interest-bearing notes and balance due upon lots sold, but not all settled for.....265,052 Value of reserved lots and unsold lots in the first survey at schedule prices.....213,600
$538,363

LIABILITIES.
Two notes due to Capt. S.
F. Simmons.....$38,000 Two notes due to Mrs. Martha D. Logan.....8,730 46,730
$491,633

OTHER ASSETS
Estimated value of the lots in the remaining three-fourths of the property now being surveyed, estimating same to sell for two-thirds as much per lot as the one-fourth included in the first survey.....$1,020,000 Total assets.....$1,511,633

In the foregoing estimates no account is taken of the increase in value of the reserved lots and the enhancement in value of the remaining property of the company by reason of building up of the city, which may increase the assets of the company very considerably—possibly making total.....$2,000,000 The subscription to the capital stock of the Salem Improvement Company of $500,000, being worth its face value, is not entered in either assets or liabilities.

But little more than one-fourth of the land suitable for building lots was included in the first survey and the estimates made above. No account is here taken of the Armstrong land of 146 acres, and of the nine acres of the Palmer land not yet disposed of, both of which have been paid for. The greater part of the Armstrong land will soon be laid out into lots and placed upon the market. Nor is there any estimate made of the value of the land reserved for furnace and manufacturing sites embracing about 100 acres.

J. W. F. ALLEMONG, President.

NOTE.—The Salem Improvement Company was organized October 2, 1889, with a capital stock of $300,000. On this stock a dividend of 80 per cent. was declared December 24th, and the same was credited to the stockholders in payment of the 80 per cent. still due on the stock subscribed for, only two assessments of 10 per cent. each having been called and paid in. 1t
